Foundations Class!

Are you visiting today and curious or been attending a few times and ready to understand more about Crosspoint. This “first group” takes time to look at key teachings of the Bible and gives much opportunity for candid questions. Don't miss this opportunity. Meeting time is often Sundays from 1-2:30 (alters depending on the group). Speak to Pastor Mike today or email him if interested! (pastorgeiger@gmail.com)

THANK YOU to all those that prayed, served, donated, and invited to our event. The weather was great. The turnout was over 800 and we have families interested in more information or finding a church – To God be the glory! A special thank you to our Mission Team & the teens from the National Honor Society who volunteered with us!

prayer requests

- Prayers for all who are attending today. Lord God may the message and power of your resurrection stir in each of us and draw us closer to you. Let today be the start of a new season of following and serving you!
- Prayer of thanks for Easter Eggstravaganza! Lord God, thank you for the many families who came to Easter Eggstravaganza. We look for you to grow the seeds that were planted. Use us to be ones to bring your Gospel to many who came. AMEN.
- Prayers from EE attendees: Our prayer cross received over 60 prayers – for growth in faith, for restoring relationships, for providing financially, for a job to be provided, for less stress in homes, for blessings on a new baby, for guidance in life and education and more!
- Prayers for Tom Staley, husband of member Marta: Tom fell recently and just discovered he fractured his hip. He had surgery this week to secure the fracture and speed the healing. Ask for complete healing for him!
- Prayers for the mother of Karen Coople: Karen’s mother was hospitalized briefly this week. She has returned home. Pray for her healing!
- Prayers for conversations and invitations: Lord God, we love you and desire to share you. Use us with boldness, clarity and courage to engage in conversations and extend invitations to individuals to connect them to Christ. This Easter, use the event of your resurrection to bring new life for souls who are disconnected from you. May our church be a place where your Gospel is proclaimed and lived. AMEN.
